

Colonel Marcus Gipson
Illinois State Police (Ret.)

Governors State UNIVERSITY

An Illinois Public University

For more than 50 years, GovState has been educating law enforcement professionals across Illinois.

Chief Jason LoCoco
Lt. Col. Illinois State Police (Ret.)

Lt. John Ross
Investigations Lieutenant
Joliet Police Department

We understand the depth, discipline, and complexity of law enforcement work, because we built our Criminal Justice program around it.

Donald Gardiner, Esq.
Illinois-licensed attorney
Licensed Police Officer
Veteran - U.S. Army Reserve

Introducing our latest lineup of adjunct professors in Criminal Justice — with real-world experience in the field.

Mark Werner
former Juvenile Officer
Director, Redeploy Illinois
Chief Judge's Office
Juvenile Division

Your academy training
Your specialized certifications
Your performance evaluations

THEY MATTER.

Jeremy Brown
Cook Co. Sheriff's Office
Police
Corrections Investigations

That is why GovState now offers up to 30 credit hours for prior learning* toward completion of your Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice.

Must self-identify as an LEO in Admissions.
BLE cert and PTB transcript Required*

Apply Now!

Position yourself for promotion, leadership opportunities, and long-term career mobility.

Rolling Admission

Classes begin Summer, Fall, and Spring terms.

ON CAMPUS, SATELLITE LOCATIONS OR FULLY ONLINE